THE COUNT HERE

Karolyi Was Married in Oakland.

A MYSTERY PARTIALLY SOLVED.

He and His Bride Were Ablaze With Gems, and Brilliants,

Father King Solemnized the Wedding of a Scion of One of the Greatest Houses in Europe.

The following dispatch was received over the Associated Press wires last night:

NEW YORK, March 10.—The Austrian Consul here is looking for young Count Karolyi, who was last heard from in San Francisco. He has taken a wife since he came to America, and as nothing is known of the marriage in Buda Peath, the father of the young nobleman is anxious to have him sent home.

The Consul's labors will not be very extended, for the young Count, accompanied by his wife, are now en route back to the the Old World. They were married by Father King in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Oakland, on the 2d of February last, in the presence of Patrick Maginnis and Mary King as witnesses.

The first known appearance of the Count in this city was on January 28th last when he walked into the County Clerk's office and asked Deputy Robert Edgar for a marriage license for himself and Boriska Frunk. The document was made out, he describing both the contracting parties as natives of Hungary, residents of Oakland, his age as twenty-three and hers as nine. In a good clear hand he then signed the check stub "St. Georges Karoliji."

He is a good-looking fellow, Edgar says, something about the build of Fitzsimmons the prize fighter, and weighing about 165 pounds. He spoke English fairly well, and was dressed in a corduroy sack coat, all his attire being of 30stly material.

The next day he visited the rectory of Father King with his intended, and in referring to their call the venerable priest says that both of them looked very matrician, she being evidently a lady, as indicated by her manner, dress and appearance. She was good looking, too, says Father King, and both of them were blazing with diamonds. They wanted to be married at once, but this was refused, as the church ordains that the bans must be pronounced. So the ceremony was put over to the following Monday. She could not speak English at all, so Father King gave them the address of the Jesuit Mission in San Francisco, where she could go to confession.

On the evening of February 2d Father King married them. He took them to the church to perform the ceremony, but the dead body of Father Tavares was lying there and frightened her. He, therefore, married them in the oratory.

The count gave his identity as the son of Count Stephen Karolyi and the Countess Margaret Csekonics of Hungary, and she hers as the daughter of Count Trak Trenk and Josepha Brich, also of Hungary. When asked for their address they gave it as Seventh and Broadway, where they claimed to have been residing for four weeks, though inquiry there failed to disclose that they had ever lived there.

Before the young couple left the court they stated that they would stay a few days in San Francisco and then go East and to Europe. His bride had an aunt in San Francisco, he said.

Father King says that his opinion of the affair is that the girl came here straight from Hungary, and that he followed her and married her.

The Karolyis are one of the leading families of Hungary, owning enormous landed interests there, including a fine residence in the city of Buda-Pesth. Count Stephen, the young man's father, was leader of the Hungarian Diet for many years. The family is one of the prominent social links of England, where they maintain a large racing establishment, and altogether one of the most prominent in Europe.

Files of the Official Gazette—Paintings by the Imperial Art Students and Other Works of Art.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 11. — United States Minister Solomon Hirsch has delivered the formal invitation of the United States, asking Turkey to be represented at the World's Fair to be held in Chicago in 1893. It is believed the Porte will accept, but some time must elapse before an official reply will be given to the invitation. The Levant Herald publishes a significant notice to the effect that, by the Sultan's orders, a collection is to be made of copies of all Turkish books, magazines and other literary works published since the accession to the throne of the present Sultan, Abdul Hamil. These works are to be richly bound and will be sent to the fair. The Porte will also send to Chicago a file of the legal paper, the Djeridei Mahakim. The Turkish exhibit will also comprise several paintings, the work of the students in the Imperial School of Arts depicting many of the most remarkable monuments of the city of Constantinople. In addition, the Sultan's photographers will prepare an elaborate series of views of the imperial barracks, schools and other public buildings.

BRAZIL KICKS.

Riciprocity Provokes Some Absurd Statements,

AND THE FEELING RUNS VERY HIGH.

Merchants in Rio Janeiro Talk of Going Into Liquidation in a Body—The English Importers.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Ever since the day when the new United States-Brazilian treaty was proclaimed simultaneously in both countries, Brazil's Minister has been in constant telegraphic communication with his Government. The cablegrams have not been lengthy, but they have been emphatic. Some of these cablegrams indicated a very serious condition of affairs, how serious may be determined from a significant utterance of the Minister made yesterday.

"I received today," continued the Minister, "an instalment of Brazilian papers containing the decree promulgating the treaty, and also presenting at length the views of officials and merchants. One of these papers, the Jonpnal de Commercio, is filled with expressions condemnatory of the treaty. The feeling has reached such a degree that one Congressman predicts that all merchants of Rio Janeiro will go into liquidation in a few months. This of course is absurd, but it shows what is being asserted. The opposition comes from two of our manufacturers, who, of course, are not affected by the treaty, and from the importers of English goods.

Westinghouse Thinks an Agent Stole a March on Him.

NEW YORK, March 11. — Westinghouse was seen at the Windsor Hotel, and asked what significance, if any, was attached to his defeat at the election of the Union Switch & Signal Company in Pittsburg. "Some time ago," said Westinghouse in reply, "N. T. Rowand of Pittsburg issued a circular to the stockholders in the corporation asking for proxies, which were to be voted according to my instructions or wishes by either him or myself. As I was not present at the election, Rowand, it appears, cast the proxies to elect a board of directors of his own selection. Under the circumstances, I do not believe the election is legal."

The loss of cattle, too, will affect the crop, oxen for labor in the fields being very scarce.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

There was a time, not long ago either, when the manly appearance of all the employes of the City Hall was the comment of every lady who was called by business to any of the departments. That was when the officials wore whiskers. Now, however, all is changed.

Deputy District Attorney Church, who by virtue of his police court duties makes his headquarters at the City Hall, is responsible for the transformation. Imbued with a desire to read the works of the old Solons of Athens in the original, he started in a few months past on a course of classical studies, and ere proceeding far made a startling discovery. It was that at all periods of the world's history whenever a nation became noted for its civilization and culture, its men were always clean-shaven, probably as a distinctive comparison to the rough-headed and bearded barbarians of uncivilized nations. Following up this line of thought he found further that most of the prominent figures of history were also clean of jowl, as, for instance, Cæsar, Hannibal, Wellington, Nelson Napoleon, Pitt, George Washington, Sheridan, Byron, Burns, Grey, Von Moltke, and Judge Nusbaumer. There must be something more than a coincidence in this, he reflected, and pondering more and more on the subject, remembering that the monks, cardinals, and Popes of the Catholic Church had adopted the shaven custom, and that all the old statues and bronzes unearthed by antiquarians gave further evidence that the great men of the past had been clean of cheek, he came to the conclusion that at least two propositions were presented: Either the desire for a shaven face was an adjunct of greatness or else it was a distinctive stamp adopted when a man became remarkable. He did not pause to remember that the convicts at San Quentin and Folsom presented a like peculiarity with Napoleon et al., that it was also the brand of pugilists, song and dance men and low comedians, though perhaps even if he had reflected thus he would have brought up as an argument that a clean shave was a necessity to all the vocations mentioned, and not necessarily the result of desire of the performer. Anyhow, to make a long story short he had his flowing mustache removed, and the next morning, amid much sensation, made his debut as one of the great-looking men of the world. He little thought what the result would be.

Boundmaster O'Donnell, struck with the extraordinary beauty that had been imparted to him by the shearing, studied his own features reflectively in the glass that night and—well a few days afterward he came down town clean-shaven, too.

County Tax Collector Andy Stone dropped up to the hall a day or two afterward to see why City Treasurer Giblin had not paid his delinquent county taxes, and also met his fate, for he ran across O'Connell, City Superintendent of Schools McClymonds and Secretary Dunn of the Board of Public Works, all clean-shaven, as they stood chatting in the hall. The presentment of so much intelligence by their smoothened faces was too much for him, and society in general knows how he too offered up his labial adornment to the sacrificial altar, and joined the ranks of the hairless.

Then Police Court Clerk O'Brien followed suit. Day after day he looked at the clean-faced men about him and felt the littleness of his own appearance draped as he was in a heavy chestnut mustache, and one morning last week after talking the matter over more earnestly than usual, he made a bee line from the hall to the nearest barber's, and emerged therefrom with a face as innocent of hair as a new-laid egg.

It is said that more converts are to follow. Superintendent of Streets Wall was seen this morning pricing razors at Osgood's drug store, City Treasurer Gilpin is constantly seeking the advice of a hand-mirror, covering his chin with paper meanwhile to see how he could stand the change, City Clerk Brady has called for a consultation of three barbers, two from this city and one from San Francisco, as to whether he had better follow the example or not, and City Electrician Carleton is making arrangements to remove his mustache by electricity.

One official is resolute though, and that is Auditor Snow. He not only will retain his sweeping lip-whisker, he says, but he has serious thoughts of hitching out a full-fledged beard, through which the winds may chant to him the songs of nature.

THE FRENCH EXHIBIT.

The Chamber of Deputies Committee Discuss the Regulations,

And Will Ask for Some Concessions Before They Recommend an Appropriation.

PARIS, March 11.—At a meeting of the Chamber of Deputies the committee appointed to consider in what manner the merchants of France can be best represented at the Chicago World's Fair, took place today. After carefully examining and discussing the law authorizing the exhibition, and after studying the rules and regulations of the United States World's Fair Committee, paying particular attention to the customs arrangements which it was proposed to make in order to enable foreign exhibitors to pass their exhibits through the United States Custom House, the committee decided it was advisable to ask for moderations in the regulations maintained. Further details upon the whole question will also be asked for and must be received before the Chamber of Deputies. The committee will ask a credit from the Chamber for the representation of France at the fair.

REV. MR. RICE WITHOUT HOPE

He Sees No Good in the Officers Elected Last Monday.

He Believes That if the Question Were Submitted the People Would Not Vote to Close Saloons.

Rev. H. H. Rice, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at West Oakland, a pronounced Prohibition stalwart and leader in the movement to secure the submission of local option to the people at a special election, was warmly in earnest today when he granted an interview to a TRIBUNE reporter at Mr. Rice's residence, 1051 Kirkham street.

"I accept the result of the vote on Monday as meaning that the issue of local option, if now submitted to the people, would be decided adversely to our side," said he, "therefore there is no use in asking the Council to call an election. As to the 5000 persons who signed the local option pledge, all I have to say is that they did so voluntarily. That they did not stand by their pledge shows a low state of political morals; or, rather, the best explanation to be given perhaps for their non-support of the Local Option ticket is that they did not dare to break away from party ties.

"However," continued Mr. Rice, "we will gain nothing by flying in the face of apparent defeat, so while the Chapman administration is in power Local Option will have no opportunity. It would not be successful if now submitted, hence our people best wait for a turn of the tide."

Then Mr. Rice branched off into a dissertation upon the incoming Republican administration, and referring to Mayor-elect Chapman, said: "He was the attorney for the 'swinging door' men, for the notorious Lipka, and therefore acceptable to the saloon-keepers. They, however, originally wanted Hyde for Mayor, but he was too bitter a pill for the Republican machine to swallow, so Chapman was taken up. I look upon him as an equally bitter pill, but sugar-coated. I look for nothing good in his administration.

"As for the Council, they say they will adopt ordinances restricting the liquor business, if they see fit. 'If they see fit' means they will do nothing. Just look at the men elected. In the First ward Mr. Thornbergh is an estimable gentleman, but he keeps a saloon and is his own best customer. Earl in the Second ward has sat and voted with the saloon men all along. Nothing can be expected from him. Mr. Nelson, I hear, is a very proper gentleman. Mr. Heitman of the Fourth ward is a little mechanic, who goes around the saloons and is a friend of T. G. Harrison. But the Fifth ward—the highly moral and aristocratic Fifth—a portion of the city we delight to take our Eastern visitors into and point with pride to its magnificent mansions, in this Fifth ward they elected Johnston, who, I understand, is a frequenter of Dietz's saloon, and on the other ticket was Hackett. Why couldn't the people of that ward have two better candidates to vote for? Neither Johnston nor Hackett was acceptable. Was it possible that in that ward where so many great mansions are, and so many prominent men reside, there was no better material for candidates? In the Sixth ward it was a choice between Broshahan, a former saloon keeper, and Lerri, a saloon habitute. In the Seventh I believe Mr. Wilkins is all right, and Dr. George Pardee we indorsed. At large Mr. Garthorne, I understand, has been a meek follower of the political machine for years. Mr. Watkinson is a fair sort of man. Macdonald I don't admire for his record on the water question.

"Ah-h," sighed Mr. Rice, in conclusion, "I see no hope from the new administration. Civil government has fallen in evil times here. The saloon and the 'machine' are paramount. No; there is no use in asking for the submission of local option to the voters. It was defeated Monday, and while public sentiment is as it is in Oakland, the vote would be unfavorable to it."

SENATOR PALMER.

Illinois at Last Chooses a Democratic Representative.

Two of the Farmers' Mutual Benefit Association Men Went Over to the Democrats.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 11.—General Palmer was elected United States Senator today on the first ballot, to succeed Charles B. Farwell. The verifications of the roll call showed that every Republican voted for Lindley and every Democrat for Palmer. Moore and Cockrell voted for Palmer, and Taubenek for Streeter. "On this, the 154th ballot," said Speaker Crafts, "the whole number of votes cast was 204, necessary to a choice, 103, of which John M. Palmer has received 103 votes (Democratic cheers); A. J. Streeter one vote and Cicero J. Lindley 100 votes, and I hereby declare John M. Palmer duly elected United States Senator. Deafening applause from the Democratic side and the galleries greeted this announcement. When silence was restored the Joint Committee of seven notified Palmer of his election. The committee returned with Senator Palmer, who was greeted with great applause. Speaker Crafts introduced him, and he made a short speech, thanking his followers for electing him.

PALMER'S SPEECH.

Palmer spoke as follows: "Gentlemen of the Thirty-seventh General Assembly: You ought scarcely to expect me to speak at this time. I feel more like saying 'Ain't I glad to get out of the wilderness.' I thank you 101 members for vindicating the rights of the people. By the plurality votes was expressed the desire of the people to select a Senator, and my election is historical. You men who have labored so long to elect your independent candidate also deserve my thanks. (Applause.) My Republican friends, I thank you, in this contest who represented the old method of electing a Senator. I thank you that this contest has been free from personalities." (Applause.)

The joint assembly then adjourned sine die. When the vote was progressing Representative Taubeneck was the only one of the farmers who did not go to the Democrats.

THE NEW SENATOR.

John McAuley Palmer was born in Scott county, Kentucky, in 1817. In 1831 he emigrated to Madison county, Illinois, and during the summer of 1838 he commenced the study of law. He was admitted to the bar the following year. In 1843 Palmer was elected Probate Judge, and up to the time the war of the rebellion broke out he held various other offices, both State and National. At the commencement of hostilities he was elected Colonel of the Fourteenth Illinois infantry, and during the war took part in many of its most important engagements. For gallant services under General Sherman, he was made Major General. Palmer held the office of Governor of Illinois, from 1869 to 1872, as a Republican, but his political course during the term was such as to alienate him from his party, and caused his acceptance as a Democrat, which he has been ever since.

The Same Benny.

Ben Litchtenstein, who distinguished himself by killing a brother tailor by the name of Phelan in this city and then getting acquitted, has been arrested for arson. Lichtenstein kept a small tailor shop on Third street in San Francisco. A fire was discovered in his place in January, which was extinguished and broke out again. The Grand Jury indicted him for arson and he fled to Dixon, Solano county, where he was captured yesterday.

A Dream of the Sea.

A farmer lad in his prairie home
Lay dreaming of the sea;
He never had seen it, but well he knew
Its pictured image and heavenly hue;
And he dreamed he swept o'er its waters blue,
With the winds a-blowing free,
With the winds so fresh and free.

He woke! and he said "The day will come
When that shall be truth to me";
But as years swept by him he always founder
That his feet were clogged and his hands were bound,
Till at last he lay in a narrow mound,
Afar from the sobbing sea,
The sorrowing, sobbing sea.

Oh, many there are on the plains tonight,
That dream of a voyage to be,
And have said in their souls, "The day will come
When my bark shall sweep through the drifts of foam,"
But their eyes grow dim and their lips grow dumb,
Afar from the tossing sea,
The turbulent, tossing sea.

STILL SCATTERING.

Estee Leads, With Twenty-nine Votes.

DE YOUNG IS NEXT, WITH TWENTY-FOUR.

The First Ballot in the Joint Convention of the Two Houses at the Capitol Today.

SACRAMENTO, March 11.—The Legislature being in joint session at 12:25 o'clock, Speaker Coombs announced that nominations for United States Senator were in order. There was an effort made to shut off nominating speeches, and Matlock moved to limit speeches to five minutes. There was no second and the President refused to entertain the motion. Coombs then took the floor to nominate Estee.

Senator Frazer nominated Blanchard of El Dorado. Dibble nominated M. H. de Young. He said he had voted for Senator Stanford because he believed in him, but now he believed in electing a man who did not agree with Stanford in every particular. "De Young is not a railroad man," he said, "and I believe in electing him for that reason." Galbraith nominated Charles N. Felton. He reviewed Felton's career, told of his official life in Washington, and his high character as a man. He said that Estee came from no particular section of California, but represented all the people of this great commonwealth. His interests were equally divided between the citrus lands of the south, the agriculture of the north, the mines of the east and the great commerce of the west. Bledsoe nominated Nestor A. Young of San Diego.

Woodbury, who is acting as local manager, says, while no seats will be reserved, the sale of tickets will be limited to the seating capacity of the church, so that each ticket will entitle the holder to a seat somewhere in the church.

TRIED TO DIE!

The Bride of an Officer of the Navy.

SHE WAS MARRIED BUT SIX DAYS AGO.

Her Letter Announcing That She Was Cursed by God and Man.

The Mystery at the Avenue House—The Physician's Prescription and the Large Dose of Morphine.

Mrs. Van Cote, bride of a naval officer engineer of the coast survey steamer Patterson, made a desperate attempt at suicide last night in the Avenue House, at 1273 San Pablo avenue, and would have succeeded in her attempt to leave this world, were it not for the fact that a neighboring roomer was attracted by the noise in her room and sent for physicians.

Drs. Muller and Webster arrived soon after and found the lady suffering from opium poison which had been taken into her system, so it was necessary for them to work until some time after 3 o'clock this morning before pronouncing her out of danger.

That it was a deliberate attempt at suicide is shown from the fact that the woman left a letter bidding good-bye to this world and stating that she was "cursed by God and man" and wanted to die.

For a bride of six days to want to take her life seems marvelous, but the course of true love never did run smooth, and this case is no exception.

Engineer Van Cote is a young man, handsome, and popular with his fellows on the Patterson, and when it was announced last Thursday that he had taken unto himself a life partner there was much joy on board the steamer.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Van Cote took rooms at the Avenue House until such time as their new cottage in this city could be ready for occupancy. But it seems that while Mrs. Van Cote was happy at having so good a husband the stories that came to her ears of the objections on the part of his parents to the match caused her much mental anguish.

But half a dozen days had elapsed since she became the wife of the man she loved and still the thought of a life devoid of happiness drove her almost frantic.

What made matters worse, the Patterson is at Mare Island fitting out for a cruise and her husband would be taken from her for a long time. So yesterday Mrs. Van Cote visited San Francisco and called upon a physician to whom she described a complication of diseases existing only in her mind and for which he prescribed a narcotic, of which the principle ingredient was morphine.

On her return home Mrs. Van Cote took an ounce of the medicine at one dose, and was soon near the door of death.

In fact, her life was only saved by the prompt action of the physicians.

Mrs. Van Cote is resting easy this afternoon and is perfectly conscious.

Tomorrow will be the day on which the couple were going into their new house.

THE BRIDEGROOM'S EXTRAORDINARY REMARKS.

This afternoon a TRIBUNE reporter knocked at room No. 12, where Mr. and Mrs. Van Cote are living, and Engineer Van Cote responded in person. His wife, a very girlish-looking lady, with jet-black hair and very expressive black eyes, lay on the bed in agony.

"I don't want to say a word about this case," said the husband, "except that those people who were here last night, might have done better than to have taken me good watch from the side and then told all about the matter to everybody that comes along. I am only sorry that I am dragged into it at all. The wife is better and will soon be well and ready for another attempt of the same kind, and I hope she makes a success of it next time." And then noticing the look of horror that spread over the countenance of the little invalid he said: "Of course, I don't mean that, but it makes me —— mad to think of what a fool she has been. This notoriety is just what she likes, and I hope she gets all she wants of it. I understand she was a cheap actress of some kind before I married her, but I didn't know that until just now."

The husband's slurs to his wife sounded awful, and the suffering girl was a picture of agony as he spoke in that strain.

The bride of a week is slowly recovering and will be able to be up soon. In her letter, which is being carefully suppressed, the little woman declared that her husband did not love her.

It is a strange case.

A Petition For Ladies.

A petition addressed to the Board of Trustees has been placed for signature in the ladies' news room at the public library. It asks for better accommodation for the female patrons of the place, pointing out that the room is too small, the table insufficient, the supply of literature too limited, the protection against draughts inadequate, and the method of entrance unpleasant.

Around the World for $600.

The Canadian Pacific Railroad has issued a handsome pamphlet descriptive of its recently inaugurated tours around the world. The trip can be started from any point on their lines, and for $600, inclusive of all expenses, the traveler is taken across the United States to England, Gibraltar, Marseilles, Port Said, Colombo, Hongkong, Nagasaki and San Francisco. The journey occupies 72 days, 24 hours or so stoppage being made at each point of interest.

A Railroad Hawkshaw.

Will Smith, the clever chief of detectives for the Southern Pacific Company, was in town today on business, and will return to his headquarters, at Los Angeles, tonight. He has had a hard bout in the mountains in quest of the Alila train robbers, but the search has, unfortunately, been void of good results.

J. Bennett Missing.

J. Bennett, until recently conductor of a real estate business on Broadway, near Twelfth street, is wanted by the police. It is claimed that he has swindled different people in town out of small sums of money, among the complainants being Hain Coleman, the furniture dealer.

Mr. Sessions Is Home.

E. C. Sessions, President of the Oakland Bank of Savings, returned today from the East.

THE LATE J. E. ROSE.

A Young Man From Newark Who Died at Grass Valley.

Grass Valley Tidings.

Joseph E. Rose, who has been a resident of Grass Valley for several years, died last night at the residence of David B. Marwick, on Church street, in this city. The deceased came here from his home in Newark, Alameda county, and secured a position as salesman with the late J. H. Henderson, in the shoe store on Main street. On Mr. Henderson retiring from business, the stock was purchased by the deceased and D. B. Marwick. Joseph Rose was known and respected by a large circle of acquaintances, and his early demise is a sad blow to his widowed mother and his brothers and sisters. His sufferings during his late illness have been intense, but he bore them with a brave spirit. He was genial and accommodating in manner and his death has cast a gloom over the entire community in which he lived. It is said that "Death loves a shining mark," and truly has the fell destroyer struck a shining mark in the death of Joseph Rose. To the bereaved family we extend our heart-felt sympathy in their sad affliction.

He was a member of Quartz Parlor, No. 58, N. S. G. W., under whose auspices he will be taken to his last resting place. The body will be taken to Newark, Alameda county, where the funeral will take place Sunday, March 1st, at 10 o'clock A. M. The interment will be made at the Mission San Jose cemetery. Members of Quartz Parlor are notified to meet at their hall at 6:45 o'clock this evening to act as an escort to the body from the residence of D. B. Marwick to the depot.

PUBLIC WORKS.

Routine Matters Treated by the Commissioners.

The Board of Public Works last night called for the bids to be opened for the furnishing of a horse to the Fire Department. Only one, however, had been submitted—from E. B. Stone at $300. It will be considered next Thursday.

Bills aggregating $1451 70 were then approved.

It was recommended that the Council grant K. G. Easton thirty days' extension of time for the grading of the walks of Independence square.

City Wharfinger Houghton's report was read and filed.

The request from the Board of Education that the Garfield School be remodeled was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

A report on the Spaulding complaints regarding the Commerce-street sewer was prepared for the Council. It remarks that the walls come late in the day.

BERKELEY.

A. Miller was seriously injured on one of his knees. He was kicked by a horse.

The term of Postmaster Napoleon B. Byrne of Berkeley will expire on December 21, 1891.

The Scotchler block is nearing completion, and like a Philadelphia fire engine, is painted red.

H. Small and C. Norgrove are the only members of the Knights of Pythias who are on the sick list.

Mrs. Reynolds, accompanied by her sister, Miss Jackson, left today to join Mr. Reynolds on his ranch in Oregon.

The Woman's Relief Corps Auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic held an interesting meeting last evening. Important business was transacted.

Ground was broken today for the new Hann block, No. 2, at North Berkeley. Judging from the plans, this is to be an ornament to this growing section. A. H. Broad is the architect and builder.

If anyone thinks North Berkeley is not growing let him cast his eye over one of the most beautiful landscapes in the world and note the improvements that have taken place during the last six months. And still they come.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Education last evening bills amounting to $1973 07 were ordered paid. The Committee on Supplies asked the board to indorse the purchase of a stove for the San Pablo avenue school, which was done. A committee of two was appointed to meet with the Board of Trustees to urge the framing of an ordinance to issue bonds for $4000 to purchase sites and build school houses. The reports of the principals were read and filed. The board then adjourned, to meet the Board of Trustees next Friday evening to consider the bond question.

Frederick Van Vliet, who died at Hooker's ranch, Ariz., March 8, 1891, was Major of the Tenth Cavalry and Brevet Lieutenant-Colonel, United States Army. His age was 49 years 5 months and 10 days. He was a genial gentleman, a true soldier and a staunch friend. Colonel Van Vliet entered the United States Army as Second Lieutenant, Third Cavalry, in 1861, and in this regiment he served in the various grades until promoted to Major of the Tenth in 1882, receiving several brevets for gallant and meritorious conduct both during and since the war. His death occurred at Hooker's ranch and was caused by a wound accidentally received at Fort Grant, Ariz. Colonel Van Vliet was a brother of General Stewart Van Vliet, United States Army. In 1886 Colonel Van Vliet married Miss Eveline Nugent, daughter of Thomas C. Nugent of Berkeley. Mr. Nugent's record as a veteran of the Mexican War and a California pioneer is well-known on this coast, in fact he is one of the men who made it possible for the majority of the inhabitants of our beautiful State to be here today.

WEST BERKELEY.

Mrs. Guile, a former resident of this place, is visiting friends here.

The sloop which was beached during the late storm was floated off Sunday with the high tide.

GOLDEN GATE.

Miss A. Croford, who has been visiting relatives in San Luis Obispo county, returned to her home Monday evening.

The property owners along San Pablo avenue are trying to get the Board of Supervisors to establish a grade for that street.

C. A. Klinkner is fitting up one of his stores on the east side of San Pablo avenue for a saloon. His brother-in-law will run the establishment in opposition to Mr. Sullivan of the Del Monte Hotel.

PIEDMONT.

The grain fields all over this section are covered with the green grain over a foot high.

E. P. Flint's house on the Flint tract, just below Al Wood's new home, is nearing completion.

The five new cars ordered from the East for the Piedmont Cable Company are expected to arrive in a few days.

NORTH OAKLAND.

A new and substantial stone walk has been put down on the east side of Telegraph avenue, opposite Thirty-second street.

Miss Shaw has been substituting in the Durant School in Miss Kimball's place, Miss Kimball being too ill to attend to her duties.

Mr. Comstock and family have moved into the house formerly occupied by the family of Mr. Valentine, on Telegraph avenue near Thirty-fifth street.

Last Friday Dr. Young was called upon to dress a bad gunshot wound in the arm of a teamster by the name of Williams. The wound was caused by the accidental discharge of a rifle which the man was cleaning.

Yesterday afternoon one of the small boys in attendance at the Durant School was the object of a severe injury, caused by being struck on the back of the head with a pointed stone thrown by a companion. Principal Dunbar temporarily dressed the wound and took good care of the unfortunate boy until he could get a carriage to remove him to his home.

WEST OAKLAND.

Ed Hart will shortly leave on a trip to Oakdale.

Aplin & Co.'s drug store is receiving a garniture of white paint in the interior.

George Fennesy, who has been at the point of death with the grip, has so far recovered that the doctors pronounce him out of danger.

On Saturday last the Second eleven of the Oakland High School Football team played the Second eleven of the Hopkins Academy team on the Center-street grounds. It was a lively and interesting game, and was witnessed by a large number.

A very enjoyable surprise party was tendered Miss Mamie Laimby on Monday evening at her home on Henry street, near Seventh. The young people assembled on the corner and proceeded in a body to the house, where they took Miss Laimby completely by surprise. Then the evening was devoted to dancing, games and other amusements. During the evening light refreshments were served.

West Oakland is afflicted with an undue amount of nuisances. From Seventh and Adeline streets, nearly to Fourth street, there are several small lakes of rain water. Fifth street for over one hundred feet is entirely under water for four feet. On Twelfth and Magnolia streets the end that has not been filled is covered with water, which is so deep that youngsters go navigating on rafts. All along Eighth street the poplar trees are doing a great amount of damage by choking the sewers and cracking cement sidewalks; so it is no wonder that West Oakland has nearly two-thirds of the zymotic diseases of the city. Something should be done to rid this section of its many nuisances.

Leander Fisk's stationery stand at Adeline-street station, is being enlarged and refitted. Mr. Fisk hires the entire store, but has fitted up half of it as a waiting room at his own expense and to the great convenience of the traveling public. As the railroad company has no waiting room of its own at Adeline street, if it were not for Mr. Fisk's consideration passengers for the train would be obliged to stand in the rain when waiting for the train. Mr. Fisk has been appointed stamp agent for this section recently, and he urges the stamp buyers of this vicinity to buy their stamps in Oakland and not to wait until they go to San Francisco to purchase them. If the revenue of the Postoffice is a little larger, an additional force of men can be placed in this department and thus afford a better mail service for Oakland.

It is rumored that the Fourteenth street horse car line will very soon be converted into a cable road. In fact it has been talked of so much that it is beginning to be a "chestnut" in this section. However, from facts recently ascertained, it is a positive fact that shortly work is to be commenced on the road. At the car house on Fourteenth and Peralta streets a large cable has been placed, which will undoubtedly be used on that end of the road. The cable company has purchased the building on the northeast corner of Market and Fourteenth street, which is at present used as a grocery store. The company has given the present tenants notice to move out so that the entire building may be moved back about twenty feet into the lot. This is so that the cable track may run where the sidewalk now is, the present curve being so sharp that it is impossible for a cable car to make it. The company intends to make two street cutters, and by moving the building back will widen this particular part of Fourteenth street considerably. What the building is to be used for after it is moved is known only to the heads of the railroad company. Work will probably be commenced as soon as the rains are over.

EAST OAKLAND.

A new shoe store will shortly be opened at 1165 Twenty-third avenue.

John P. Maurice, of Fresno is visiting friends on Nineteenth street and Tenth avenue.

Frank Euch has nearly completed his new $7500 cottage on Eleventh avenue, near Twenty-sixth street.

Dick Davies is bidding his friends good by before he starts on his trip to Chicago, where he will stay for several years.

The new bus line to Highland Park is proving a great accommodation to people living at a distance from the railroad station.

Mr. Zerrill has sold his grocery store on East Twelfth street and Thirteenth avenue to H. Tum Suden, who will increase the stock and refit the store.

Justice of the Peace Harry A. Melvin is fitting up his new courtroom at 1122 Thirteenth avenue in an elaborate manner, and he will soon move into it.

A new public hall to cost about $10,000 is to be erected on the lot on Thirteenth avenue recently purchased by T. F. Wheelan and William Smith.

Tubbs' Hotel has been crowded all winter with boarders from all over the United States, who have come to spend the winter here, to avoid the cold Eastern winter.

Work will soon be commenced on building Ed Lohman's new house, to be constructed on the site of the Newsome nursery, on Twelfth street and third avenue.

Frank Petlin of Twenty-fourth avenue is placing an elegant new iron fence in front of his residence. He is also having his grounds beautified and a large stable built.

A well-known East Oakland Republican, while celebrating the victory of Chapman Monday night, was robbed of a check for a large amount. He does not know when the robbery occurred, but payment has been stopped.

The Oakland Football Club will play practice games of football again this year on the grounds opposite the Franklin School on Ninth avenue and Fifteenth street. The games will commence soon, and will start at 5 o'clock, so that those players who are busy during the day may have a chance to play.

F. M. Smith, who owns the beautiful residence and grounds at the northern end of Eighth avenue, will shortly build a new house on his grounds that will eclipse all others in this section for beauty and novelty. The electric light that was erected on his grounds especially for the garden party given by the Eotheon Club recently, still remains there and lights up the grounds splendidly.

The work on the construction of E. C. Sessions' new horse-car line in Highland Park to Fruit Vale, which, of course, was stopped during the rainy weather, has been resumed. A large force of men is still engaged in Beulah Park blasting out the roots of gum trees, preparatory to grading. One of the features of the new road will be the easy grades which are to be established. The steep hill this side, near the Hermitage, will be avoided entirely. When the road is completed the new cars will be run on it.

LORIN.

The voters of Lorin didn't hold an election on Monday, but they had just as much fun as if they had. They did just as much shouting over the Oakland election as if it had occurred in Lorin.

There are two factions in Lorin; one a local option faction and the other a saloon faction. Editor Taynton of the Lorin Tablet espoused the former cause, and even went so far as to refuse to advertise liquors or tobacco in the Tablet. When local option fell by the wayside in Oakland the anti-local optionists of Lorin rejoiced, and to show their feeling they hanged Editor Taynton in effigy last evening, with a whisky bottle in one hand and a plug of tobacco in the other.

ALAMEDA.

The Insulted Justice Wreaks His Wrath on the Poor Tramp.

E. A. Pattison has sold his residence, 1117 Chestnut street, to Dr. Fowler.

The wife of Herman Cordes, residing at the corner of Briggs avenue and High street, has been quite seriously ill.

H. B. Smith Jr. and wife, living corner of Central avenue and Benton street, will leave the latter part of this month on an extended visit to Chicago.

A boy named Charles Crocker (no relative of the railroad magnate), who was arrested a few days ago as a runaway, was sent yesterday to the Boys and Girls' Aid Society, San Francisco.

Mrs. Lulu Burch (nee Kamp), daughter of Police Officer Kamp, has been committed to the insane asylum. Her affliction was brought on by epileptic fits, to which she was subject from childhood.

The tramp named Doyle, who dared to call Justice Byler a "hobo," was sentenced yesterday to 180 days by the insulted Justice—ninety days for vagrancy and ninety days for contempt of court.

Andrew Johnson, who lives on Santa Clara avenue, near Third street, was arrested yesterday for battery upon his wife, and will have his trial Thursday in Justice Swasey's court. Johnson keeps a restaurant in San Francisco.

Arthur Stenbiht was scuffling a few nights ago with an Italian peanut vendor, on Park street near Railroad avenue, and made the Italian sit down on a seat. The Italian's guitar happened to be on the seat and was broken. Stenbiht was arrested for battery and yesterday was fined $10.

The signers of the protest against the opening of Haight street feel quite sore over their defeat, as they confidently expected that Mr. Mastick would vote to sustain the protest. They have not yet decided to take the matter into court, but will hold a meeting in a few days and talk over the situation. There is hardly any doubt that ultimately the opening of the avenue will result beneficially to the West End.

F. K. Krauth, the veteran and popular newspaper man, is making arrangements to publish the Encinal as a daily. His is the official paper, and as soon as he can make arrangements with the city by which the advertisements can be inserted in the daily instead of the semi-weekly, as now provided in the contract, the publication of the daily will commence, being the second in Alameda.

Henry Koerber, a coal merchant on Santa Clara avenue, stepped across the street yesterday, and during his absence a man who looked like a tramp went into his office and tried to open the till. He was at work on it when Mr. Koerber returned, and he tried to sneak away. Mr. Koerber caught hold of him, gave him a vigorous kick, and then let him go his way.

The issue of the coming municipal election will be a clearly defined one—high license—and there will be two tickets for Trustees in the field. One will advocate the retention of the license at $500 per annum, as provided by Mr. Neal's ordinance, and the other set of candidates will run on the pledge to reduce it to the old figure, $200. It appears quite certain that D. L. Randolph will be one of the high-license candidates and W. H. Noy one of the candidates in favor of a $200-license. The contest will have many exciting features.

SENATOR HEARST'S FUNERAL.

No Arrangements to Bury the Body at Mountain View Cemetery.

The special train bearing the body of Senator Hearst will arrive tomorrow, and will be met at the pier by the committee which has the arrangements for the funeral in charge. The body will be escorted to Grace Church by the Third Regiment and it will lie in state until Sunday afternoon at 2 P. M., when the funeral services will be conducted by Rev. R. C. Fonte, rector of Grace Church.

General Dickinson has by special request taken charge of the procession and military details and has ordered out the entire Second Brigade.

Governor H. H. Markham and the following well-known citizens have received requests to act as pallbearers: Judge Selden S. Wright, William D. English, Charles N. Felton, Lloyd Tevis, William F. Goad, Mayor George H. Sanderson, Senator A. P. Williams, ex-Governor George C. Perkins, Frank McCoppin, Irving M. Scott, Judge Niles Searls, Arthur Rodgers, John H. Wise, Louis Sloss, A. B. Butler of Fresno, Barry Baldwin, Captain C. L. Taylor, General Gibbon, Commodore Benham, Jeremiah Lynch, Russell J. Wilson, Major R. P. Hammond Jr., E. G. Waite, and Irwin C. Stump.

The final resting place of the Senator has not yet been determined upon. The statement was made that the body will be buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Oakland. The late Senator owns no lot in this cemetery, and the superintendent of the cemetery has not received any notification of the purpose to lay the body there.

No adventure novelist's wildest dreams ever equaled Stanley's plain unvarnished relation of his exploration of the heart of Africa.

The Insanity of E. O. L. Edholm.

E. O. L. Edholm, a journalist, who recently came here from St. Louis, was yesterday committed to the Stockton Asylum for the Insane. His insanity is caused by chronic alcoholism. Mrs. M. G. C. Edholm, his wife, the energetic and faithful worker for temperance, recently sent him money to come to this coast. The use of liquor inordinately seems a disease with him and has at last stolen away his reason. He was an intelligent, accomplished gentleman, and his unfortunate appetite only prevented him from taking a high position among his fellow men. Mrs. Edholm has the sympathy of hundreds of friends in her present unhappiness.

WEDNESDAY .....MARCH 11, 1891.

It seems that we are not to have that war after all. The Bering sea difficulty is in a fair way of settlement on a reasonable basis. John Bull may now tie up General Wolseley.

The islanders of the city of Alameda finding themselves shut out from contact with the civilized world by the accumulation of water in the tidal canal excavations, and contemplating the distant prospect of a bridge, console themselves by calling the newly-created body of water "Lake Mendell." At least so tells us Colonel Robinson Crusoe Krauth.

The queer obstinacy with which the British traveling public or their masters adhere to the practice of leaving their railroad carriages without means of providing heat, save an occasional appliance in the nature of the domestic hot water bottle, will not be shaken by the freezing to death of some of the passengers who were caught out in the big snowstorm. John Bull would much rather die than adopt anything American. As for us, we prefer to keep comfortable while we are alive, although we are from time to time roasted to death by the car stove.

President Eliot of Harvard has got himself into trouble again by his unruly member. At a St. Louis banquet he lamented the occurrence of "waves of misinformation in the West" from which the East was free. Admitting that the West does sometimes go off half-cocked and all at once, this does not affect the amusing egotism of the dictum which holds the East wholly guiltless of such delusions. It is clear that Boston remains the single repository of the wisdom of the country, because, of course, when Mr. Eliot speaks of the East he has Boston in his eye single.

The death of John F. Swift, our Minister to Japan, comes very suddenly. It was only a few days ago when he was mentioned in a complimentary way for Senator from this State. He had no aspirations for that office, but he held a high place in the councils of the party. Mr. Swift furnished, perhaps, the leading example of the political danger of rushing into print. He would, no doubt, have been Governor of California and if not been for the unfortunate letter that precipitated the American movement in this State, which weakened the Republican forces enough to elect Washington Bartlett. Mr. Swift was the possessor of literary talent in a high degree, and no doubt liked to use his pen. The political significance of the incident, if there is one, is that the politician does well who confines himself to signing his own name, and is very careful about that.

Of the Making of Books.

We do not yet publish quite as many books in this country every year as they do in England, but we may expect that under the new Copyright law we shall soon catch up in this respect. The feeling of English publishers on this matter is indicated by the fretful tone of the comments of the English press on the passage of the measure. Some of them even complain that the law was designed rather for the benefit of the United States than of England, a not uncommon form of national egotism in England, where the belief is current that the whole world is only of use in so far as it contributes to the support and glorification of that country. The total number of books published in the United States last year was 4559, as compared with 5735 in England. The Publishers' Weekly gives a table showing the literary output in figures, and the comparisons which it invites are interesting and suggestive. The list of novels is greater than ever before. Of the 1118 volumes of fiction no fewer than 935 were new books made in the United States, the new editions and importations amounting to 183. This total of new novels is an average of three for every week day in the year. Other classes of books, theology and religion, history, juvenile, biography and memoirs, literary history and miscellany, travel, etc., and sports and amusements, show an increase in numbers as compared with 1889; while in a few departments poetry and the drama, fine art and illustrated books, and mental and moral philosophy, there is a falling off. We give herewith the comparative table, which may be studied with profit:

	1887.	1888.	1889.	1890.

In England the output of fiction is declining, while the educational, classical and belles letters classes show a slight increase. The decrease in the total number of books published in England is accounted for on the theory advanced by the Academy that "the wants of the reading public are becoming more and more satisfied with newspapers, reviews and magazines, and that authors consequently find their own best market in the same field."

Why They "Gobbled" the Road.

The immediate prospects of a competing trans-continental line, with a terminus on the bay of San Francisco, are not improved by the intelligence noted in these columns on Monday, that the Atchison people had bought the California & Nevada road, whose terminus is at Emeryville. A Chicago dispatch today confirms the truth of the story, but adds on the authority of Colonel J. J. McCook, that there was no intention of putting the property to any immediate use. Colonel McCook said: "We learned by accident that the road was for sale, and gobbled it to prevent its falling into the hands of either the Rock Island, Burlington, Missouri Pacific or any other line which would have continued it to the Pacific coast. We had our through southern line, and could afford to buy it and keep it out of the hands of competitors rather than suffer the competition of a new line.

This information is entirely in accord with what we believe to be the settled policy of the big railroad syndicates for the present. Most of them are railroad poor, and Jay Gould has succeeded in effecting some sort of organization among them which will probably hold together for some time to come. It was a knowledge of this policy which has caused us to regard with suspicion all the recent rumors of trunk-road extensions. For the present the railroad people are tired of the policy of building parallel roads, and the movement of the sort of any importance is President Hill's plan of extension of the Great Northern Road, by which he proposes to attack the Northern Pacific on its own ground. How long the present policy is likely to continue it is impossible to say, but the fact that the Atchison people saw fit to "gobble" the most available entrance to Oakland and means of access to the bay lest some other road might step in and get hold of it, shows that it is not expected to continue for a long period.

MEN AND WOMEN.

P. H. McGrew went to Santa Rosa last week.

Captain Blaisdal is visiting friends in Los Angeles.

C. L. Armstrong and Tyler Henshaw are in Portland, Or.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Requa have returned from Redondo Beach.

Charles Smith and Daniel Connell of Boston are visiting relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hale departed on Saturday last for a visit to Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Coutts and Miss Coutts of Oceanside, San Diego county, are here on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Gurnett of 461 Twentieth street.

The Starr King Fraternity will tender a reception on Thursday evening of next week to Edward Everett Hale and Dr. Alger. Mr. Hale will lecture on Friday evening.

C. W. Sprague, formerly constable of Berkeley, who subsequently went into business across the bay, is now prominent in the San Francisco Dramatic Exchange, 1085½ Powell street.

Miss Nina E. Moore, an accomplished young Nevadan, who has been residing in Oakland for the past few months while pursuing her art studies, left on Monday night for Brooklyn, N. Y.

John H. Bridgeford, a prominent and wealthy Oregonian, is in the city, a guest of Rev. George W. Sweeney. When Dr. Sweeney was pastor several years in Chicago Mr. Bridgeford was one of the active "Deacons" of his church there. Mr. Bridgeford is on a flying visit to California.

The following patents have been granted Oakland people: Henry Forgason, assignor of one-half to H. G. Comstock, electric arc lamp. Amos Westwood, assignor to P. S. Mallon, process for decorating glass and porcelain. W. H. H. Wright, assignor of one-half to G. W. Lewis, spring seat for vehicle.

The Illustrated American refers in commendatory terms to Miss Clara McChesney, daughter of J. B. McChesney, Principal of the Oakland High School. Miss McChesney has been, it seems, making a decided sensation in art circles of late years. "She is a constant contributor," says the American, "to the exhibitions at Boston, Pittsburg, Buffalo, Philadelphia and Indianapolis. An exquisite little water color by her, 'Violets,' first attracted attention to her unusual ability some two years ago, and last spring a pastal, 'Cabbage Field by Moonlight,' and 'An Old Lady Knitting,' were accorded flattering criticisms. A believer in no particular method, and using whatever medium offers the clearest expression of her ideas, she inclines more to the Dutch school than to any other. Miss McChesney has the frank, responsive manners of most earnest and gifted women. She is medium-sized, with a fine intellectual brow and wonderfully abundant reddish gold hair, curling softly above clear, kind eyes that are eloquent of her fine nature."

Mis Kathlynne Heron is slowly recovering from a threatened attack of brain fever. Since last September she has been unable to fulfill any engagements. Her physique has been unequal to the strain made upon it by her intensity and intellectuality. A benefit will be tendered her at Irving Hall, San Francisco, Saturday evening, March 14th, at 8 o'clock. The entire programme will be rendered by young ladies, pupils of Mrs. Edna Snell Poulson, as follows:

1. Recitations by Miss Kathryn Daly—"The Story of the Faithful Soul," by Adelia Proctor; "Miss Murphy Consults a Medium," by Henry Hatton.
2. A dramatic monologue, "Behind the Curtain"; cast, "Mrs. Bellamy" (imaginative and timid), Miss Sadie Dickerson.
3. Recitations by Miss Elizabeth Phillips—"The Passing of a Hero," Nora Perry; "The Secrets of the Heart," Austin Dobson.
4. Comedy scenes from "The Hunchback"—cast, "Miss Helen," Florence Meyer; "Modus," Miss Dickenson.
5. Recitation by Miss May Holmes—"The Story Sir Bedivere Told," Tennyson.
6. Recitation by Miss Kluhna Beveredge—"Tomorrow at Ten," Nora Perry.
7. Drama, "a monologue—"A Woman's Retaliation." (Translated and arranged from the French by Mrs. Edna Snell Poulson. First presentation on any stage); cast: "Madame," a youthful wife with a grievance, Miss Gibbs; "Monsieur," invisible, but emphatic.
8. Comedicta, "A Startling Announcement"—Mrs. Edna Snell Poulson (First public presentation); cast: Ten young artists, embryonic and incognito.

Some eighty of the leaders in society of San Francisco and Oakland are among the patrons, which insures its social, as well as artistic success.

The Councilmen Rushing to Clear the Files.

AN IMMENSE AMOUNT OF STREET WORK.

Sidewalks, Sewers and Pavements Ordered—The Improvement of Telegraph Avenue.

When President Collins called the City Council to order last night there were present, besides himself, Messrs. Camron, Towle, Macdonald, Evans, Kirk, and Earl. One of the first motions carried was that when the Council adjourned it should do so to meet tonight. Then Mr. Camron explained how a number of property owners would like to finish certain work by private contracts, and he offered a resolution rescinding resolutions of intention for sidewalks on Adeline street, between Seventh and Eighteenth; Brush, between Seventh street and San Pablo avenue; Elm, or Twenty-fourth, between San Pablo and Telegraph avenues; Filbert street, between Seventh and Twenty-first; Hobart street, between San Pablo and Telegraph avenues; Jefferson, between Seventh and Seventeenth streets; Jones, between San Pablo and Telegraph avenues; Merrimac, between Webster and Telegraph avenue; Sixteenth street, between Telegraph avenue and Market street; Telegraph avenue, from the northern boundary line of Durant street; Telegraph avenue, from Durant street to the intersection of the avenue with Broadway; Myrtle, between Twenty-first street and San Pablo avenue; San Pablo avenue, from Twenty-eighth street to northern city limits; Twelfth street, between Adeline and Clay streets.

It was ordered that Telegraph avenue, from Sixteenth street to the northern boundary line of the city, be regraded, recurbed and paved with third-class bituminous rock.

Also Eighth street, from Pine to Market.

Also Goss street, where not already done.

Also Chase street, from Willow to Campbell.

Sidewalks on Caledonia avenue, from Grove street to Telegraph avenue.

Seventh street, from Wood to Market.

Grade, curb and macadamize Thirty-first street, from Grove street to Telegraph avenue.

A resolution was also adopted allowing property owners to pave Broadway, from Seventh to Fourteenth street, with bitumen, where not already paved with that material.

Street work was ordered as follows, the resolutions of intention having been printed the necessary time:

Cement sidewalks on Sycamore street, from San Pablo avenue to Telegraph avenue.

Also Laurie or Twenty-fifth street, from Grove street to Telegraph avenue.

Also Caledonia avenue, from Grove to Telegraph.

Sewering Magnolia street from Twenty-second to Thirty-sixth.

Same on Twentieth street, from Telegraph avenue to Broadway.

A resolution was adopted ordering the bills of the California Bridge Company paid as read.

Mr. Camron introduced an ordinance reducing the license on theatres from $50 to $25 per quarter. Passed to printer.

The ordinance granting H. G. Blasdel a franchise for a street railway on Twenty-third avenue was passed to print, with some amendments.

A stack of bills a foot deep was referred to the Finance Committee to clear the file.

An ordinance accepting Edwards street, from Telegraph avenue to Broadway, was referred to the Judiciary Committee; also an ordinance opening Chestnut street to a width of sixty feet, from Fifth to Twelfth; also an ordinance establishing grades on Twentieth street, from Fourth avenue to the eastern boundary line; and same on East Twenty-first street, from Sixteenth avenue to Twenty-first avenue.

The compensation of J. S. White, P. Vandercook and C. W. Dearborn, as commissioners in the matter of opening and extending Clay street, from Seventeenth to San Pablo avenue, was fixed at $300 each, the same being payable out of the Assessment fund.

Petitions were read from the following citizens:

Peter Calou, asking that proceedings for opening of Thirty-third street, westerly from Grove, be rescinded.

George B. Seaman and others, asking that Twelfth-street property-owners be compelled to lay cement sidewalks east of Broadway.

Leander Fisk and others, asking that Adeline street, from Fifth to 300 feet north of Third street, be re-graded.

From property-owners asking that Matthews avenue be brought to official grade.

M. Nolan, asking leave to connect with sewer in block 16, East Oakland.

A. J. Snyder, for extension of time to lay sidewalks at Eleventh and Franklin streets.

James Sullivan, for gas lamp at Third and Magnolia streets.

Asa M. Bradley and others, asking to have Edwards street accepted.

C. E. Ellis and others, asking for crosswalks at Goss and Pine streets.

Mrs. A. Hennings protested against sewering of Campbell street, from Thirteenth to Eighteenth.

The Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company, by resolution, was requested to place an electric light at the corner of Ninth and Harrison streets.

An agent of Joseph Macdonough presented a communication, giving as a reason for not laying a cement sidewalk at Fourteenth and Broadway that the owner intends to build. No time was mentioned and on motion of Mr. Camron the clerk was directed to obtain more definite information.

The appeal and objections of William T. Hamilton, Mrs. Jane K. Sather, et al., in the matter of the Washington street assessment for bitumin zing, etc., was referred to the City Attorney for an opinion, as it is claimed that the Council has no jurisdiction over the matter, inasmuch as the work was done by private contract.

The City Engineer was ordered to prepare an ordinance establishing grades on Fourth or Matthews street, between Eighteenth and Hopkins street.

A communication from R. C. Leonard, agent of the Santa Cruz Rock Paving Company, respecting the paving of Broadway and Telegraph avenue, was referred to the Street Committee.

The Councilmen were weary, the quorum had melted away, and those remaining concluded to adjourn.

DIMOND TRACT

Fruit Vale Avenue, East Oakland.

Fruit Vale avenue has for many years been deemed to be one of the most desirable locations this side of the bay, for residence property. It is sheltered from winds, has a sunny exposure and delightful climate, and is handsomely improved by a number of the most elegant homes and charming ornamental gardens. The tract now offered for sale is a portion of the home place of Mr. Hugh Dimond, and is situated upon the avenue, at the intersection of Hopkins street—the terminus of the Highland Park and also the new Fruit Vale street railways. The Highland Park line is about to be re-constructed and re-equipped, and will furnish frequent access to and from this property, including early and late trips. Lots will be sold on liberal terms if desired. Superior cement sidewalks are being laid. City water is being introduced. It is also proposed to have electric lights upon the avenue.

AS AN INDUCEMENT to parties erecting houses, arrangements have been made with the Railway Companies by which a FREE PASS, good for five years, will be furnished for each dwelling erected upon the Tract within a specified time. For the purpose of protecting the property and insuring a good class of purchasers, a stipulation will be required—that no house worth less than $1500 shall be erected. Purchasers will, however, not be required to build at all, if they do not desire. These lots have upon them choice, vigorous, young fruit trees, now in full bearing. WINDSOR!

Is located in the Richest Section of Sonoma County, in the Russian River Valley District. The town is built in a picturesque valley and is surrounded by the Largest Fruit, Grain and Vineyard Ranches in the county.

WINDSOR has several General Merchandise Stores, Manufactory of Agricultural Implement sand Windmills, two large wineries, Fruit-packing and canning Establishment, Hotel, Livery Stable, Wells Fargo Express Office, Telegraph and Post Office and every convenience of a large city.

WINDSOR as a commercial center for the distribution of goods is hard to equal, backed up as it is with one of the finest Agricultural, Grazing and Fruit Growing Counties in the State its prosperity in this direction can easily be calculated by the average business man.

FIRST—It is located in the midst of an extensive and fertile farming country, thickly settled by farmers who have, heretofore, been compelled to travel miles for necessary supplies.

SECOND—A portion of this ranch has been divided up into small subdivisions, each of which will support a family. The surrounding country will aggregate nearly several thousand more all of whom must contribute to the support of this town.

THIRD—Located as it is about midway between Santa Rosa and Healdsburg with San Francisco and North Pacific R. R. passing through the entire ranch, affording transportation to the metropolis of the State, San Francisco, at less cost than any other place in the State.

FOURTH—There is a proposition to bridge Russian River that runs on the west, one and one-half miles, off Windsor, which will still open up a large, fertile country that will contribute to the support of Windsor which will make it the most convenient point for transporting their products to market and for obtaining supplies.

FIFTH—The town of Windsor with its magnificent climate; its productive soil; cheap, certain and rapid means of communication with the great city of San Francisco, must attract many who desire to avail themselves of a change of climate. There is no fog, no malaria nor chill winds to mar the pleasure of an evening in the open air.

SIXTH—There is no place in California that will equal Sonoma County in her never-failing crops. The so-called winters are never so cold as to retard vegetation. The most delicate plants and flowers continue to grow and flourish throughout the year.

TERMS OF SALE—One quarter cash, balance of purchase price in one, two and three years. THE FIRST BALLOT.

What the Gossip Is About the Men Named.

DE YOUNG, FELTON, ESTEE ARE IN IT.

All Talking of Possible Gains—Charles Hadsell Working for Felton—Legislative.

SACRAMENTO, March 10.

Now that the first ballot has been taken in the great Senatorial contest, the struggle has really begun. The whispering in lonely places; the "just a moment, please," of the worker-in-ordinary to the mighty men of battle, brains and boodle; the obligations rising up out of the cobwebby past; the things done and said in the long ago; the "I remember, I remember, I forgot" of politics—that is the way the water comes down on the able politician's wheel at Sacramento. De Young, Felton, Estee—these are the words in the mouths of the people. Two of the words are bitter to those in whose mouths the other one is sweet.

Still, it is a very good-natured contest. There is no gouging of eyes, no pulling of hair. There are plenty of kind words all around. If the fight is longer the language may grow stronger. Hot words come from hot hearts. But as yet the milk of human kindness has not been soured by the acidulated spirit of contention. When the ladies of the city sent Mr. De Young three great floral pieces last night, and had them displayed on the counter at the Golden Eagle office, Mr. Felton limped by, and notwithstanding his rheumatism, smiled complacently as he sniffed the odor of a La France bud. Mr. Estee, too, honest old farmer that he is (in politics), named each bud and blossom with a satisfaction born of knowledge—which is power when there are enough votes that way.

Last night everything waited for today. Still, it was said that the first joint ballot would not show much change. The complimentary votes were expected to rearrange themselves somewhat, but not to cluster around any one of the three principal standards. The time had not come for that yet. The De Young men told quietly of accessions. The Estee men spoke hopefully of more votes. Felton's adherents were sure they had made material gains since the first informal vote. None cared to tell just where the new strength was to come from, but all were sure of it.

Among the knowing ones there is a general expectation that the real struggle will be between Felton and De Young. To be sure the latter led the former by a very decided majority on the first showdown; but, "when the break comes," the San Mateo man was expected to develop much greater strength. De Young and his managers are quietly confident that when that much-expected break does come it will not be in the levee which they have built up around their votes. Still, it is all guesswork yet.

Alameda county came out quite strong yesterday in the speechmaking. Senator Dargie placed Mr. De Young in nomination before the Senate, and then, when the others held back, calmly moved that the nominations close. Senator Denison voted once in compliment to ex-Senator William Johnston of Sacramento. Senator Simpson gave his vote to Felton. In the Assembly Fowler placed Charles A. Wetmore in nomination, and was lonely in the support of his candidate. Cram nominated ex-Governor George C. Perkins, and Ames and Culver stood in with him in his vote. McCall seconded the nomination of Johnson, and Bryant voted that way with him. These six votes from the Alameda delegation in the Assembly were all complimentary. They were not intended to "stay put."

Charles Hadsell of Sunol, is here in Felton's interest. Will Ralston is one of the busiest workers around the headquarters of the sage of San Mateo. The headquarters of all candidates echo the popping of corks occasionly and the gurgle, gurgle, gurgle of good wine from old bottles. But the end is not yet.

The Assembly yesterday sent to the Governor Senator Simpson's bill providing that in cities of Alameda's class the Board of Education may take its Secretary, who is ex-officio Superintendent of Schools, from outside of its own membership.

The Senate spent nearly all of yesterday in amending the proposed County Government bill. The bulky measure was made more bulky. One of the most important amendments was the one providing that San Francisco may appropriate not to exceed $50,000 for the World's Fair fund; counties of the 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th classes (including Alameda county), not to exceed $40,000; and all other counties not to exceed $7500.

In connection with the World's Fair, it is generally believed here that Senator Eli S. Denison will be appointed by the Governor the Commissioner from the Third Congressional district. A strong petition has been sent to the Governor in his behalf, and Senator Simpson and others who have talked with the Governor about the matter are confident that the appointment will be made.

The Senate today passed Mathews' Assembly bill providing that when street work ordered by the Council costs more than $2 per front foot the property-owners may issue ten year bonds to pay for it—one-tenth of the bonds to be redeemed each year. In the same bill is a provision that the Council may compel street railroads to pave the spaces between their tracks with the same material with which the street is paved. There are some amendments in the bill which the Assembly must concur in before the bill goes to the Governor.

Dargie's bill, appropriating $65,000 for the Deaf, Dumb, and Blind Asylum, and Denison's bill, relating to the issuing of bonds by religious and benevolent institutions are on the first reading file of the Senate bills in the Assembly.

One of the jokes of the voting today was the way old Dr. Noble Martin of Placer dodged a vote. The Democratic caucus indorsed Ostrom of Yuba. Martin is a Democrat of Democrats. But Ostrom is a leader of the valley men. Martin is the leader of hydraulickers. He couldn't stomach Ostrom, so he slid out into the lobby and refrained to respond to the call of his name. The indorsement of Ostrom was because of the Democratic fear of the Farmers' Alliance. Ostrom is honest enough, but he has been voted a windy nuisance all through the session, and has been the butt of numerous jokes. But he is strong with the Alliance.

AN AVERAGE LIFE.

A Man Who Was Entitled to Twenty-Nine Years.

KILLED AT THE MEMORIAL DAY DISASTER

F. E. Whitney's Fee Cut Down From $12,000 to $3000—Columbus Bartlett's Application Denied.

The suit of Mrs. Annie Irwin against the Southern Pacific Company to recover $50,000 for the death of her husband, who was killed in the Webster-street drawbridge disaster, last Memorial Day, was resumed in Judge Ellsworth's Court this morning. Late yesterday afternoon Captain M. R. Roberts gave some testimony that created something of a sensation and brought forth strong objections from Attorneys Martin and Moore representing the defendants.

Captain Roberts testified that after leaving the end of Alameda wharf the Oakland and Alameda trains raced along at an alarming rate, and that the engineers and firemen of the two trains were fooling with one another by squirting water and drenching each other with a dipper, while the trains were running side by side. After some wrangling by the attorneys, Judge Ellsworth ordered the testimony stricken out.

This morning Mrs. Irwin was placed on the stand again, and Attorney Martin drew out the fact that Irwin had at one time been a book agent. The defense is trying to show that Irwin did not earn anything like the salary claimed by the widow.

The tables introduced by the plaintiff, which are similar to the mortuary tables used by the American Life Insurance Company, showed that Mr. Irwin was warranted in expectancy of twenty-nine years of life, and the plaintiff's attorneys are working on this basis, claiming that the man's life is as valuable as the salary he would have earned during his lifetime. The defendant's lawyers objected to the introduction of these tables, and the morning session of court was mostly occupied by Attorney Sullivan's argument that such evidence was admissable. It will be several days yet before the case can be ended.

CUT DOWN $12,000.

The Claim of F. E. Whitney Against the Walkerley Estate.

The lawyers in the Walkerley estate contest were completely dumfounded this morning when they learned of Judge Hunt's decision in the matter of the allowance of their fees. The Judge has cut and slashed at the claims until very little of the amounts demanded has been left.

The principal difficulty in the way of the distribution of the estate seems to have been the large claims of the various attorneys. Columbus Bartlett, one of the executors of the estate, wanted $5250 fees for his services as an attorney. Judge Hunt held that when a lawyer acts in the dual capacity of executor and attorney of an estate he can recover nothing for his services as attorney, hence, Bartlett's claim for $5250 dwindles out of sight completely.

F. E. Whitney of this city, who represents the absent heirs, it will be remembered, claimed the sum of $15,000 for fees, but Judge Hunt thinks $3000 is a great plenty for Mr. Whitney's services in the past and in the future, and so that is all Mr. Whitney can obtain from the estate.

Attorney Rogers, who claimed $2000 for representing a minor child of the deceased, will have to be satisfied with $1000.

The attorneys wanted something like $22,000 in all, but Judge Hunt cuts this down to $4000, making a saving to the estate of $18,000. By the same decision the executors are given permission to mortgage the Post-street property in San Francisco occupied by the Pacific Union Club for $25,000 at 7 per cent. The money is to be used in paying the expenses of distributing the estate.

The decision of Judge Hunt is a very voluminous document, and is held by Judge Greene until Judge Hunt can come over to Oakland and deliver the decision in open court.

A CONTRACT TO BUY.

Bailey Did Not Make the Purchases and the Result.

The suit of George B. Bailey against Horace H. Seaton and Frank H. Adams, which was commenced in San Francisco one year ago, has been transferred to Alameda county. The complaint recites that in October, 1888, the defendants demanded $1000 for the breach of an alleged agreement for the purchase of land in Alameda county. He had entered into a contract with them to purchase the property, but at the time of their demand had lost the written contract and forgotten its terms. He accepted as correct their reprentations that he had agreed to forfeit $1000 if he failed to carry out his bargain, and paid the money. He has since been convinced that he made no agreement to forfeit the money, and has demanded its return, but has not received it. In January of this year the executrix of Mr. Seaton's estate was substituted in his place as defendant.

THE INFORMATION FILED.

The Writ of Habeas Corpus Probably of No Avail.

Yesterday afternoon R. M. Fitzgerald made application for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of Sam Sun Kee, a Chinaman who was committed to the County Jail by Justice Richmond of Washington township. In his petition Mr. Fitzgerald says that the commitment fails to state the nature of the offense for which Kee is held. The prisoner was arrested for burglary, he having broken into the railroad depot at Alvarado one night. In Judge Henshaw's court this morning the habeas corpus proceedings were continued until next Tuesday. Yesterday afternoon an information was filed by the District Attorney charging the prisoner with burglary, and he was arraigned in Judge Ellsworth's department this morning. The filing of the information will likely knock out the technicality complained of by Attorney Fitzgerald.

THE HUSBAND GETS FIVE.

The Bequest of Mrs. Charlotte C. Jones To Her Spouse.

The will of Charlotte C. Jones, the colored woman who recently commenced suit against A. C. Ainsworth to quiet title to certain property, but died before the suit was brought into court, was filed for probate today. The estate is valued at $2500 and personal property of the value of $100. To her husband the deceased leaves $5 and the rest of her estate is bequeathed to her cousin, Silvia Johnson, of Greenville, N. Y., and her son, Ferdinand Johnson, and Julia Foote of Jacksonville, Miss. Welles Whitmore is named as executor and has applied for letters testamentary on the estate. The small amount left her husband is accounted for by the fact that the deceased was on the point of suing him for a divorce when her death occurred.

The Butcher's Dwelling.

J. H. McMenomy, the wholesale dealer in stall-fed beef, recently had built for himself a handsome residence at Golden Gate. Now a number of mechanics' liens have filed upon the property by J. M. Hemmich for $346; the Puget Sound Lumber Company for $646 73; Jordan Brothers for $290, and E. L. Marsh for $16 62.

From the Records.

J. B. Sprague has contracted with D. W. Pratt to erect a building on Market street, near Thirty-first, for $1762.

Marcuse & Remmel have constracted with Henry Mohns to erect three dwellings on Bay street, near Central avenue, Alameda, for $4000.

The Ladies Delighted.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

THE LOCAL OPTION VOTE.

A Correspondent Gets Lost In a Tangle of Figures.

To the Editor of the Tribune—SIR: I am a Republican and a Local Optionist. I read with much surprise your comments in last evening's paper on the result of the election and think you are in error in stating that only 500 Local Optionists cast their votes on Monday.

There having been no regular Local Option ticket the vote on that question cannot be determined, but I am satisfied, from my own observation, that thousands of the electors of this city, of both political proclivities, voted for those only whom they knew would be willing, and had expressed such willingness, to use their official influence in bringing the saloon question to the vote of the people. Such voters, in the absence of a regular ticket, were forced to make up one of their own from such candidates of both parties as had been recommended by the Local Option Committee, or who had signed or made the required pledge. The writer voted, as thousands of other Local Optionists did, for Mr. Chapman, although he had refused to sign the pledge required by the Local Option Committee. He had promised, both publicly and privately, to use his official influence to bring the saloon question before the people. Mr. Chapman is a temperance man, while Mr. Yale, who was recommended by the Local Option Committee, is not. As an intelligent elector I preferred using my own judgment, and voted for such men as I knew would use their influence to bring this great question to the vote of the people, giving the preference of course to those of my own political faith.

I am satisfied that the honest local option vote on Monday would have been counted by thousands rather than by hundreds if the figures could have been ascertained.

That the result of an election by the people of this city on the question of "saloon or no saloon," when it does take place, will astonish you, Mr. Editor, and those of your belief, is the candid opinion of ANTI-SALOON.

Oakland, March 11, 1891.

[The correspondent is in error. "Local Option tickets," so-called, were circulated in every precinct of the city. Three classes of these tickets were printed and distributed. All three contained the names of candidates for Mayor and members of the City Council, approved by the Local Option Alliance. In other respects the three tickets contained the names of candidates of the three parties—Republican, Democratic and American. The returns received by THE TRIBUNE showed that 334 of these Local Option tickets had been cast, 167 of which were scratched. However, from some precincts no reports of Local Option tickets were obtained by the news gatherers. A large estimate of the number cast at these precincts is 50. Therefore, about 384 Local Option tickets, straight and scratched, were cast in this city—certainly not more than 400.

Mr. Yale certainly would resent the assertion that he is not a temperance man, though he is not a total abstainer. However, that is not our affair.—EDITOR TRIBUNE.]

AMUSEMENTS.

The Last Performance of Marie Wainwright's Company.

A thoroughly satisfactory performance of an excellent comedy, Twelfth Night, drew one of the largest houses for a long time in the Oakland Theater. The world of fashion and his wife was all there, and his best girl, and everybody was pleased. Miss Wainwright, as "Viola," was, of course, the central figure. She is a most graceful woman, with a musical, well-modulated voice, "an excellent thing in woman." That old favorite, Barton Hill, is no doubt the best "Malvolio" on the stage, and the important parts of "Sir Toby Belch," "Sir Andrew" and "Maria" were admirably filled. This is the charm of the company, that there is not a weak spot in it.

The company will give The Honeymoon tonight.

Imprisoned and at Auburn.

In October last High Norton was arrested at Forest Hill Placer county, on complaint of L. L. Chamberlain and imprisoned at Auburn for three days. When Norton was released from custody he commenced suit against Chamberlain to recover $5000 damages for false imprisonment. The case has now been transferred to Alameda county by Judge Myers.

A Firm Incorporates.

Articles of incorporation of "The Alameda Brass and Machine Works" have been filed with the County Clerk. The capital stock of the concern is $3000, of which one-half has been taken by Alfred Aldrich and one-half by Arthur J. Webster. The firm was known and designated as Aldrich & Webster.

Who Makes Tea

NATURE makes the leaf and man makes the tea; and ordinary tea is filthy and unfit for use. The leaf is always substantially the same. Different tastes of tea are mainly caused by different method of treatment. Tea drinkers now realize this. They don't want to be poisoned—nor to drink dirt. They denounce the nasty work of cheap Oriental laborers—poisonous coloring—lead packing. Respect your stomach—don't use such tea.

· Schilling's Best ·

IT is pure, clean, fragrant and healthful—only touched by hand in picking—cured by machinery—the only process known of making perfectly clean tea of full strength and flavor. It is best for your taste, health and pocket.

SCHILLING'S BEST is the only line of machine cured teas.

THE WANDERER FROM HOME.

Percy Phinney's Relatives Could Not Believe He Had Died.

They Ask for His Jewelry, But Alas, There Is no Jewelry to Send—The Boy Must Have Changed.

Deputy Coroner Henry Evers Jr., has received the following letter from one of the sisters of Percy Phinney the man who committed suicide in the Harris House after a spree about a month ago.

WALTHAM, Mass., March 2 1891.

Mr. H. Evers, Jr.—SIR: Yours received through Mr. Eage. Am obliged to accept the horrible truth of my brother's cruel misfortune. Some one has a terrible sin to answer for. Nothing could ever cause me to believe it was other than foul play. We are confident the boy had money. He also wore a nice gold filled sword was afterward erased; watch and chain, and a massive wedding ring, flat band with large old English letters on outside, "M. R. P." Nothing of the kind was found. 'Tis an evident case of robbery and life extinguishing for what he possessed.

You may think it strange we could not believe it was true.

An instance occurred right here in Waltham some number of years ago, of a young man who went to California. After a time his folks received a telegram saying he was dead and wanted money to defray expenses. It was not sent, but some one of them went out to ascertain, found the young fellow alive, and ignorant of any such news being sent home. Had it been possible, one of us would have immediately gone for the same purpose after learning what we did from the papers.

We could not believe it. We did not want to, but just lived on the hope 'twas a terrible mistake and we would find it out so.

You would have heard from us before, otherwise, and at the time of burial we would have had him differently located, not that it would matter to him, they would all be strange anywhere out there, but we would have had it different. We first decided, after thinking the matter over, and trying to realize the truth, to have him moved, but have come to the conclusion later, to let the poor boy rest, till we can bring what was once he dear, to his own lot he owned here. We hope to effect it before long.

My brother did not measure but 5ft. 7½in. The paper stated that he was 5 ft. 10in., also that he was thirty years of age. He was much younger and slight when he left home three years ago. We will gladly pay the expenses of his funeral if we know what it is.

Very respectfully,
MRS. D. D. PATRICK, JR.

P. S.—I can never forgive the one who called the police instead of a physician at the time he was found.

The family does not seem to be willing to accept the fact of his death, even after the proofs have been sent. Whatever Percy Phinney's character may have been in his native place, he certainly had fallen by the wayside in California. As for the property spoken of, it must have been sold or pawned. His family still regard his death with suspicion, as if it were a scheme to extort money, and they do not seem to think that Phinney might have spent his money. Coroner Evers, out of respect for his family, did not send all of the effects of the deceased, which consisted of a choice assortment of addresses of disreputable dens and other articles that would have told the family what the wandering boy had been doing in California.

The Girls' Directory.

The Girls' Directory, located corner of Grand avenue and Lott street, San Francisco, is a plain, unpretentious two-story structure. Modest and economical as the building plans have been and meagre as the furnishings are, the same is not all paid for. The ladies in charge have labored hard to make that small two-bit and four-bit contributions, as derived principally from working women and mechanics, meet their liabilities, and tide them and their forty little waifs over their immediate necessities, but the continuous outlay and increased number of children who find a home and refuge here from the temptation of the street, has necessitated an appeal for assistance, which will be made through the medium of two musical entertainments offered for public patronage, on Easter Monday and Tuesday evenings, March 30th and 31st, at Irving Hall. The list of artists who have kindly consented to appear embraces a large number of the best musicians. Applications from all who desire to aid this worthy object will be thankfully received by the Lady Superior at the Home, either by letter or in person.

Delayed Construction.

The floral depot of Hutchison & Sanborn, at the corner of Fourteenth and Washington streets, is to remain where it is for at least a year to come. According to the terms when the property was sold at the first of the present year the land was to be vacated by the 1st of May, as it was understood a large building would go up there. Now, however, the plans are changed, for the building is not to go up for at least a year, and the land has been rented to the florists for that time. The store department will be moved to the corner of the streets from its present location on Fourteenth street, a few feet from Washington street.

O'Connell Has a Revolver.

A dog, while indulging in a fit on Eighth street yesterday afternoon, was raged on a suspicion of insanity by Poundmaster O'Connell, who subsequently shot it in front of the City Hall, to the entertainment of a number of assembled officials.

Fire and Police.

The Police and Fire Commissioners were in session only a few minutes yesterday. Chief of Police Tompkins' monthly report was read, and demands of $267 10 were allowed against the Fire Department Fund and $115 23 against the Police Department Fund.

The Health Overseers.

The Board of Health will meet on Friday. It will be the last meeting of the body, as at present constituted. There members will be appointed by Mayor Chapman, to succeed Drs. Pinkerton, Southard and Pardee.

No Trades in the Public Schools.

The Young Men's Christian Association Debating Society on Monday discussed the question, "Resolved, that trades should be taught in the public schools." Mr. Austin took the affirmative, and Mr. Outram the negative. The debate was clever on each side, and a decision was finally given in the negative.

HELP THE POSTOFFICE.

During March Lay in a Stock of Postage Stamps.

The people of Oakland must come up nobly in their patronage of the Postoffice during the remaining days of this month, in order to raise the office out of the unprogressive rut and grade which has governed its classification for the past five years. The Postmaster is working strenuously for the accomplishment of this beneficial object, and if he fails the failure will be the fault of the people of Oakland, and they will be obliged to put up with the present inefficient service.

It will be too bad to fail in this effort for the lack of a few hundred dollars. Taking the past ten days of March as a basis, failure is imminent, and just for the lack of less than $1000. Do the people desire better service? If so they must come to the relief of the office at once. When the classification is once raised there will be no trouble in maintaining it, as the average receipts of the past six months are ample for that purpose.

Mrs. Minnie Herget has employed P. F. Benson to commence divorce proceedings against her husband, Emil W. Herget. Five months ago he deserted his wife and two children and went to Santa Clara county, leaving them almost destitute.

P. F. Benson has been retained by Mrs. Mary L. Silveira, a widow, to commence suit against the Southern Pacific Company for $10,000 damages for injuries received last August at San Lesandro, where she was tripped and injured by some lumber which employes had left on the platform.

COMMUNICATIONS, ETC.

An affidavit was presented by County Clerk James E. Crane, as follows, to-wit:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, } ss.
COUNTY OF ALAMEDA. }

James E. Crane being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is County Clerk of the county of Alameda, State of California, That Alameda County is a county of the second-class. That affiant was, on the 17th day of October, 1890, appointed by the Honorable Board of Supervisors of said county, to the office of County Clerk and Auditor of said county, for the unexpired term of said office, caused by the resignation of Chas. T. Boardman, the former County Clerk and Auditor.

That at a general election, held on November 4th, 1890, affiant was elected to the office of County Clerk of said county for the term of two years, commencing on the first Monday of January 1891. That when said Boardman resigned there was left much unfinished work in his office which should have been completed by him, and the office was in disorder and confusion.

The principal work remaining was the Road Records, Franchise Book, Ordinance Book, Record of Burial of Dead Soldiers, Indices, and many other matters. That the completion of all this work, has and will cause this affiant much additional labor and expense. That all the unfinished work in the Auditor's office has been completed by affiant at his own expense, and the County Clerk's office has been put into proper condition. That by the segregation of the offices of Clerk and Auditor, the salary of the office has been reduced in the sum of $3000, while it requires almost as much help to properly conduct the office as it did before such legislation.

That the business of the office has very largely increased since the salary attached to said office was fixed by law, and in support thereof affiant states the following fact: The total cash receipts of Clerk's office for the month of December 1888 was $882 20; for the month of December 1890, $1142 55; for the month of January 1889, $738 15; and for the month of January, 1891, $1522 70.

The number of civil actions commenced during the month of January, 1888, was 40; for the month of January, 1891, 82. The work in the matters of estates of deceased persons and guardianship of minors has very largely increased, the criminal work has nearly doubled and the work of the Board of Supervisors to be properly done requires the sole attention of one man, and all the other work of the office has increased in like proportion.

The work of all departments of the county Government depends on the population and the population of Alameda county has increased 50 per cent during the ten years last past.

That the salary of the office as now fixed by law is $1083 33 per month. That the number of deputies and assistants now actually employed in said office is as follows, to-wit:

Four deputies, at $125 per month, $500; two deputies, at $100 per month, $200. To properly do the copying in the office and keep the same up to date will require a monthly expenditure of $125, making a total of $825. This will leave the salary of the Clerk $258 33 a month. The office cannot be properly run to the satisfaction of the people of this county at any less expenditure than above set forth. As compared with the salaries of other county officers, $258 33 is about one half, while the duties devolving upon the Clerk are numerous and equally as important as the duties of any other county officer. That in view of said unfinished work which must be brought down to date at once, and in view of all the other matters above stated and set forth, the salary now allowed said affiant as County Clerk is insufficient to pay a reasonable compensation for the services required to be performed by him, and that he should be allowed a deputy, to be paid under the provisions of Section 211 of the County Government act, to properly discharge the duties of his office and to leave him a reasonable compensation for the services required to be performed by him. Affiant further states that he will complete all said unfinished work as rapidly as possible without further assistance from said board other than the deputy hereby applied for.

Wherefore, Affiant respectfully presents this affidavit in accordance with law, and asks that the Honorable Board of Supervisors of said county to allow him one additional deputy, at a salary not to exceed $100 per month, in accordance with the provision of Section 211 of the County Government act, and to be paid as therein provided. (Signed.) JAMES E. CRANE.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 24th day of February, 1891.

ROBERT EDGAR,
Deputy County Clerk.

RESOLUTION.

The following Resolution was then read by the clerk.

WHEREAS, James E. Crane, the County Clerk of the county of Alameda, State of California, has filed with this board, an affidavit as required by Section 211 of the County Government act showing that an additional deputy is required by him in the proper discharge of his duties as such County Clerk, and

WHEREAS, In the judgment of said board such additional deputy is necessary and should be allowed, therefore,

Be it Resolved, By the Board of Supervisors of Alameda county, that from and after February 4, 1891, one additional deputy be and hereby is allowed to the County Clerk of said county of Alameda, to be appointed by said County Clerk, such additional deputy to be paid a salary of $100 per month. The same to be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the salary of said County Clerk, in accordance with the provisions of said Section 211 of the County Government act.

On motion of Supervisor Pelouze, duly seconded, the said resolution was ordered placed on file.

On motion of Supervisor Pelouze, duly seconded, the expert of the county was instructed to examine into and report to this board the amount of work left unfinished in the office of the County Clerk by ex-County Clerk, Charles T. Boardman, at the time of his resignation, and to report the length of time and probable cost required to write up and complete same.

ADJOURNMENT.

The board then adjourned, to meet again on March 2nd, 1891, at 10 A. M.

JEWELS AND LACES.

"Oh, girl with the jewelled fingers,
Oh, girl with the laces rare!"

What are your jewels and what are your laces worth to you if, from undergoing the trying ordeals which fashionable society imposes on its devotees, enough to test the physical strength and endurance of the most robust, you break down, lose your health and become a physical wreck, as thousands do from such causes?

Under such circumstances you would willingly give all your jewels and all your laces to regain lost health. This you can do if you will but resort to the use of that great restorative known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Thousands of grateful women bless the day it was made known to them.

For all derangements, irregularities and weaknesses peculiar to women, it is the only remedy, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

An invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system. For feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels. One a dose. Sold by druggists. 25 cents a vial.

PIONEER FRENCH BAKERY

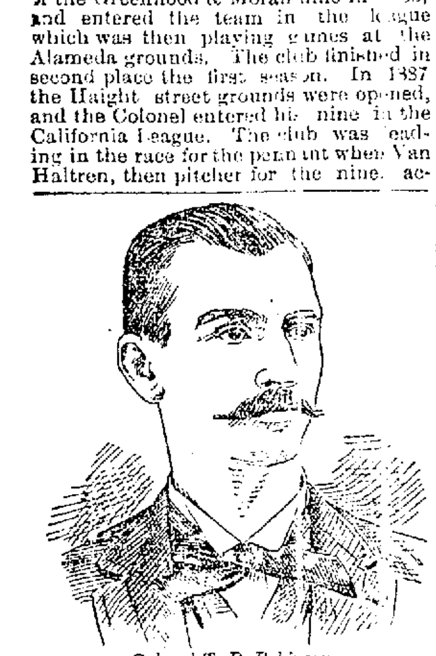
M. & J. LONGE, Proprietors,

N. E. cor. Tenth and Webster Sts.,

OAKLAND, CAL.

FIRST QUALITY FRENCH BREAD delivered in all parts of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda. French Rolls made to order.

Colonel Thomas P. Robinson has done more to advance the interests of baseball in this State than any other one man in California. He first became manager of the Greenhood & Moran nine in 1886, and entered the team in the league which was then playing games at the Alameda grounds. The club finished in second place the first season. In 1887 the Haight street grounds were opened, and the Colonel entered his nine in the California League. The club was leading in the race for the pennant when Van Haltren, then pitcher for the nine, accepted an engagement with the Chicago club. His going away crippled the team, and as a result, it landed in last place in the race. In 1888 they were again target bearers, and 1889 they landed in first place. Last season the boys played good ball for a part of the time, but could get no nearer to the pennant than third place when the season closed.



Colonel T. P. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson has been an exceedingly successful manager and has made considerable money out of the business.

THE UMPIRE.

Danny Long Has Something to Say About Van Haltren.

Donohue and Sheridan will be the umpires for the California League during the coming season.

The mascot for the home team this year will be a large dog, which was brought out from the East by Joseph Lavegerie, alias Cantillion.

Captain O'Neill proposes to make the new team work like beavers during the week while practicing. He is of the opinion that a baseball player cannot get too much practice.

Oakland will be favored with Sunday morning games during the coming season. I have no doubt that the games will draw good crowds and will prove a "find" for the managers.

The work on the Oakland grounds has been greatly set back by the recent stormy weather. The Colonel will have to hustle his men to get them to have the grounds in good shape before the season opens.

Henry Harris, manager of the San Francisco team, has been kind enough to inform the baseball cranks that the new Oakland nine will be last in the race at the end of this season. Indeed, I do not share such an opinion with Mr. Harris, but on the contrary, from the reports from Fresno, where the 'Friscos are being beaten by a hayseed nine, I am led to the conclusion that Harris' nine will not be "in it" with the Colonels when the season is fairly under way.

I met Jerry Denny, the king third baseman of the world, yesterday. The poor fellow is almost broken-hearted over the loss of his young wife, who died while he was returning East to fulfill his engagement with the New York club. Those who knew Mrs. Denny speak in the highest terms of praise of her as a mother and a wife. She was devoted to her husband. Mrs. Denny leaves two bright little children, who will live with relatives in this city. In a few days Jerry will start a second time for New York.

Walter Mars, who has been signed as one of the twirlers for the home nine is said to be a very fine pitcher. Last season he made a good record with the Syracuse club of the American Association. Stevens, the other twirler, is also said to be a very clever man in the box. It is expected that all the new players will arrive in Oakland tomorrow. It is probable that the team may play a few games in the interior and then go to Byron Springs to get into condition for the opening game. Such is the programme of the Colonel at the present time.

Van Haltren has created no end of excitement among the baseball men in the East by signing with the Baltimore team. A number of telegrams has been received by people in this city from baseball managers in the East, asking information as to whether Van had signed a binding contract. As a matter of fact George has not signed a contract at all. The document he signed is an agreement. I met Danny Long last night, and he made no secret of telling me just how the deal was accomplished. Long had received word to ascertain, if possible, whether Van had signed a Chicago contract. He had no trouble in ascertaining this fact, as he and George have always been fast friends. He immediately wired Manager Barnie and others to the effect that Van Haltren was still open to sign with any club. Thereupon Long received orders to make an offer to the player, which he did, and Van took a few days to make up his mind before he would accept the terms. In the meantime the agreement arrived and was in Long's possession. Al Havens, on behalf of the Chicago club, made Van an offer, which he took under consideration. Long then offered the player a guaranty of two years, with a salary of $3500 a year and $1000 advance money. Instead of informing Havens of this offer Van Haltren telegraphed to Al Spalding this message: "Have received an offer from Baltimore of $3500 a year for two years. Can you do any better?" George says he waited three days for an answer to this telegram and none came so he signed the agreement in Long's possession. "You can say," said Danny, "that Van has signed a binding agreement, and I have myself paid him $1000 advance money. He receives from Baltimore $1000 a year more than he was offered to play in Chicago. In my judgment Van has not made a mistake in jumping the National League. George is not playing for glory. Baseball is a business with him."

THE UMPIRE.

SHOOTING FOR MEDALS.

The Regular Monthly Shoot of the Mt. Eden Rifle Club.

The Mt. Eden Rifle Club held a regular monthly shoot a few days ago. A number of spectators witnessed the shooting, and the members of the club made good scores. Haywards captured the first prize, for George Obermuller of that place secured the gold medal and C. W. Jones the silver one. The score was as follows:

First class—John Obermuller, 37; F. Dennis, 38; George Obermuller, 39; C. Gading, 38; B. W. Dutcher, 35; Peter Peters, 29; Gus Guy, 23.

Second class—Con Beck, 35; H. M. Feldersen, 36; R. Knudson, 28; Charles Heyer, 27; A. Johnson, 34; Otto Guy, 18; Sam Simons, 34; C. W. Jones, 40; W. Hayward, 20; L. Pingel, 36; W. Hansen (new member), 37; M. Byrnes (new member), 20.

THE SPORTSMAN'S CLUB.

The Annual Meeting to Be Held Tomorrow Night.

The regular annual meeting of the Alameda County Sportsman's Club will be held at 900 Broadway tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. Secretary Harry Houghton has sent out circulars to all the members, requesting them to be present, as business of importance will be transacted.

The first monthly shoot of the season at live birds will be held at the Oakland Trotting Park on Saturday, March 16th, commencing at 2 P. M.

The present officers of the club are: W. W. Haskell, President; F. B. Horton, Vice-President and H. B. Houghton, Secretary and Treasurer.

Football.

The members of the Oakland Football Club held a meeting Friday evening at 1271 Eighth avenue, and it was resolved:

1. That a regular eleven should be picked, which should play every Saturday and be used as the match team, fines being imposed for non-attendance at the games.

2. That Edgar Pomeroy, resigning the captaincy because of inability to attend the Saturday afternoon games, should be made secretary, and Charles Myrick captain.

3. That the monthly dues be raised to 25 cents, in place of 10 cents.

4. That all bills should be paid before Tuesday, March 10th.

5. That practice games should be played every Saturday at 4:30 P. M. until the evenings are lighter, on the lot, corner of Ninth avenue and East Sixteenth street.

6. That a committee of three wait on President J. J. Valentine and Vice-Presidents Rev. Dr. J. K. McLean and Senator W. E. Dargie with reference to club business.

7. That members of the first eleven must wear the club uniform, consisting of maroon jersey, white trousers, and black stockings, and that the club cap be of velvet, maroon color, with silver tassel and trimmings.

8. That inter-collegiate rules be played until the end of April.

9. That a circular letter be sent to all members, asking for the earliest regular time they can turn out on Saturdays, and the names of any new members they wish to propose.

10. That a business and social meeting be held every other Thursday at the residence of Edgar Pomeroy on Eighth avenue, commencing Thursday, March 19th.

A general discussion followed, and a ball at the end of the season was hinted at. The meeting dissolved, with three cheers for the club.

TO HEAD OFF OTHERS.

Why the California and Nevada Railroad Was Purchased.

Colonel McCord Explains in Chicago the Reasons for Buying the Road From Oakland to Contra Costa.

A telegram from Chicago has settled all controversy as to the purchasers of the California & Nevada Railway. The telegram says: Colonel J. J. McCook and Thomas Baring arrived in Chicago this morning, and were closeted all day with President Manvel and Vice-President Springer of the Atchison. Colonel McCook said this evening that there was no particular reason for the visit, except that President Manvel left tonight for a trip over all the southern Atchison lines, and they wanted to consider a large number of details before he left.

He said, in answer to questions: "There is not a word of truth in the report that the Atchison will join the California & Nevada in the formation of a new San Francisco line. The Atchison is not contemplating building a foot of road to head off extensions of any of its competitors. We learned by accident that the road was for sale, and we gobbled it to prevent its falling into the hands of either the Rock Island, Burlington, Missouri Pacific or any other line which would have continued it to the Pacific coast. We had our through southern line and could afford to buy it and keep it out of the hands of competitors rather than suffer the competition of a new line."

Work has begun putting the line to General Wagner's place at Orinda Park in repair, and the road will be gradually extended to Walnut Creek, when operation will be made profitable. It is hoped to build up a summer travel to Mount Diablo by the extension of the road to Walnut Creek.

Headlight Flashes.

J. H. Thompson, Assistant Division Superintendent at the pier, has returned from Stockton.

The second Pennsylvania excursion arrived today from Los Angeles. The tourists remained in Southern California, and the train was empty. It will go East tomorrow, taking the passengers of the first excursion, who remained in San Francisco.

Both passenger and freight traffic is increasing. Wheat business is good, and there is plenty of work.

THE CO-ED. WANTS A COURT.

She Asks for It—Professor Joseph Le Conte's Leave of Absence.

The University "co-ed." is a girl of the period, and if she don't see what she wants she asks for it. That is why a petition was presented to the Regents at the session yesterday asking for a tennis court. The boys have a baseball ground, such as it is, and the girls want a tennis court.

The Regents disposed of the Morrill College aid fund, and granted Professor Joseph Le Conte a year's vacation, the first he has had in twenty-two years.

It was decided that the University might need some increased facilities in the way of buildings, etc., and a special committee was appointed, to consist of J. West Martin, A. S. Hallidie, George T. Marye Jr. and Martin Kellogg, to examine and report back to the board.

A PLAY BY NATIVES.

"Damon and Pythias" by Members of Oakland Parlor of Native Sons.

The members of Oakland Parlor, No. 50, Native Sons of the Golden West, have arranged a production of Damon and Pythias, to be given at the Oakland Theatre on March 20th. The romantic drama will be given under the direction of George Allen Watson, with Mr. Watson and W. Elnor Johns in the title roles. The remainder of the cast will be made up from members of the parlor and will include Phil Remillard, Arthur Pope, J. H. Ames and others. J. W. Tompkins will take the part of the "Executioner" and Frederick Warde has permitted the use of his incidental music. The production will be for the benefit of the parlor.

SHE MET DEATH ON THE WAY.

Mrs. Ecles Left Virginia to Consult Hypnotist Brown.

Pneumonia Attacked Her on the Train and She Died Yesterday in East Oakland.

Mrs. Harriet Ecles was a resident of Richmond, Va., where she took up her home at the close of the war, during which she had been performing the soulful mission of nurse for the Union army. Her semi-medical experience, however, had been evil of result to her; for, through constantly dabbling with opiates while dispensing them to the wounded and suffering, she had started to use them herself, and slowly but surely was becoming a confirmed opium fiend, taking the drug in its liquid form of laudanum. As years went on the habit became stronger and stronger, and though she made several attempts to shake it off, all was in vain, and she, from taking an ordinary dose of a teaspoonful of the drug, got to that stage where she could dispose of a pint—a quantity sufficient to kill thirty-two ordinary people.

A few months ago her attention was attracted to the articles in the newspapers of the wondrous cures effected by Dr. Brown, the hypnotist, of San Francisco, of opium fiends, cigarette smokers, etc., and a wise idea struck her. She would go to California and place herself under his treatment, and as he lived in San Francisco she would stay with her cousins in East Oakland. Fixing up thereifor her household affairs and leaving her property in charge of her daughters, she left Richmond on the 26th of February last, and full of faith came straight to the coast, arriving in this city on Wednesday last. She was quite sick, though, when her cousin met her, for she had contracted a cold on the train, though this she declared she would soon shake off. Her all-absorbing desire was to see Mr. Brown at once, so she wrote to him at the Union Club, San Francisco, and received in return notification of an appointment for 12 M. on Saturday next.

She was much pleased on this settlement of a time, but those with whom she was staying noticed that her sickness was gradually becoming more severe, and at last she had to take to bed. From then on she got worse and worse, acute pneumonia developing, and at 9 o'clock yesterday morning passed away.

She was a widow and aged 54 years.

Rev. G. W. Sweeney Lectures at San Jose.

An abstract of Rev. G. W. Sweeney's lecture appears in the Monday issue of the San Jose Mercury. It says of the lecture: "Rev. George W. Sweeney, pastor of the First Christian Church of Oakland, lectured last evening at the Baptist Tabernacle on his travels in Europe, Asia and Africa. Long before the speaker made his appearance every seat had been taken, filling the large tabernacle to its utmost capacity. Many were forced to leave on account of not being able to obtain even standing room.

After the introduction the speaker plunged at once into his subject. His manner of delivery was informal and unostentatious. He narrated his interesting travels in a conversational tone, with a strong under current of humor, interlarded with occasional bursts of oratory when inspired by the historic interest of some place he had visited. During the one hour and a half in which he spoke he was attended with great interest on the part of his audience. The speaker closed his interesting lecture by a beautiful eulogy upon America, the grandest land whose soil his foot had trodden. At the close of the lecture the audience joined with the choir in singing "America."

The "Jessomene" Here.

The Jessomene, the vessel that was saved by the tugs while drifting on to the heads during the storm last week, is lying at the water-front discharging cargo. She will then be turned over to the contractor for repairs. She and her cargo have been libeled for $10,000 by the Spreckels Brothers, owners of the tugs that brought her through the Golden Gate.

Delegates Elected.

George J. Hans and Ed. S. Reed have been elected by Brooklyn Parlor, No. 151, Native Sons of the Golden West, as delegates to the fourteenth annual Grand Parlor, which convenes at Santa Rosa on April 27th. H. A. Sagehorn and Rowland F. Allen are the alternates.

To Elect Delegates.

Oakland Parlor, No. 50, Native Sons of the Golden West, will meet this evening to elect delegates to the Grand Parlor.

Though pure and simple, and so mild,
It might be used by any child,
Yet SOZODONT'S so swift and sure,
That mouth and teeth with wondrous speed,
From tartar and from taint are freed
Till they become sweet, white and pure.

FUN AT AN AUCTION SALE.

The Ladies get Excited in an Attempt to Outbid Each Other.

There was a good deal of fun at an auction sale of millinery on Washington street, on Saturday last. A number of ladies were present who were bent upon securing certain pretty bonnets. When the bidding commenced the fun commenced. The ladies in their anxiety to secure a prize would forget their bids and frequently increased them before anybody had raised the price offered. This was fun for the auctioneer, and certain rude males present were loth to laugh loud. However, after the auction was over, the manager of the People's Express was called upon to carry a great number of articles to San Francisco. The People's Express did the work expediciously, as is the custom with this company.

SOME of Henry M. Stanley's adventures put Rider Haggard's imaginings to the blush.
